

SEXUAL ASSAULT AWARENESS MONTH

.....
April 2021

WELLNESS WEDNESDAYS

Stop by the tables outside the cafeteria every Wednesday in the month of April from 12-2pm to pick up information on consent, healthy relationships, and grab an "I ASK" pin.

ONLINE BOUNDARIES AND CONSENT WORKSHOP

This workshop, on April 16th from 1-2pm, opens up discussions about how to practice consent and show respect for boundaries in person and online.

STEP UP! BYSTANDER TRAINING

Join us for Bystander Training on Thursday, April 22nd from 12-1pm or Wednesday, April 28th at 6:00pm. Learn how you can help prevent sexual assault from occurring.

QUEER ADVOCACY TRAINING*

Join the Georgia Network to End Sexual Assault on April 20 from 1:00-2:30pm to explore how LGBTQ+ communities experience sexual assault and domestic violence and the unique barriers they may face. Gain personal skills to build bridges for LGBTQ+ survivors. Visit gnesa.org to sign-up.

DENIM DAY

Denim Day, April 28th, is an Annual, national day of awareness that encourages participants to wear denim as a symbol of believing survivors and asserting that consent has nothing to do with clothing. Share your photos of you in your denim with the hashtag #OUSAAM

SURVIVAL STORIES*

It's On Us and End Rape on Campus, two national organizations, have partnered to launch an online community to empower survivors to anonymously and safely share their stories and healing journeys. Visit stories.itsonus.org all month long.

OTHER WAYS TO GET INVOLVED

Visit www.nsvrc.org/saam/2021/saamgraphics to download Zoom background; social media graphics for Twitter, Instagram, and Facebook; and GIFs. Share your images on social media by using the hashtag #OUSAAM
